Dear Friends both Near and Far,

Welcome to SONGS OF PROTEST 4, from ArtsRock.org, a non-profit, non-partisan arts organization based in Nyack, NY. We are so glad you have joined us to celebrate the power of music to make social change.

Each of the first three SONGS OF PROTEST events, starting in April of 2017, was presented to sold-out audiences in our Rockland, NY community. This latest concert, was supposed to have taken place in-person on April 6th, 2020. We had the performer lineup and songs already chosen when we had to halt the entire season due to the pandemic. As in SONGS OF PROTEST 1, 2 & 3, we had planned to present an evening filled with amazing performers and powerful songs that have had a historical impact on social justice.

When we decided to resume the series virtually, we rethought the concept. With so much going on in our country and the world, we offered the performers the opportunity to write or present an original work about an issue from our current state of affairs. The responses from the musicians blew us away!

We then paired the songs with a crew of amazing filmmakers. The final video projects also exceeded our expectations. From pain and anger to inspiration and humor, the range of expression is tremendously moving. We added a couple of songs that were extremely relevant, some paired with original interviews. We hope this makes for a wonderfully balanced, powerful program.

Whether virtual now or in-person later, ArtsRock.org is happy you have joined us.

Best

Elliott Forrest, Founding Executive Artistic Director

Lula Pilar

Lula Pilar, born and raised in Nyack, NY, and is now a senior at Nyack High School. Lula has been writing songs on ukulele and piano for years and plans to continue studying this passion in college. She studied piano for eight years, beginning at age five, and has studied voice for six years. Along with being a singer-songwriter, Lula is very involved in musical theatre, playing leading roles in Nyack Schools productions since eighth grade. She attended the SOCAPA 2018 and Grammy Camp 2019 summer programs to develop her craft and work on her pursuit of songwriting. Throughout quarantine, especially with the evolving Black Lives Matter movement, Lula began to focus her writing on social justice issues. She shared her perspective -specifically about George Floyd's death- in her original song, "Skin." It received recognition from peers and adults in her community, earning her the Artistic Curiosity Scholarship from the Edward Hopper House. She hopes this song, and those to come, inspire people to create a more loving and equal world.

Michael Mark

Michael Mark won a Drama Desk Award as a Featured Actor in the Broadway musical, I Love My Wife. He composed the theme song for the long-running TV show, Entertainment Tonight, and spent more than 35 years of his musical time writing and performing with Tom Chapin, sharing in Grammy nominations for Tom's albums of family music. He has toured with Tom extensively in the US and the United Kingdom. Michael's wife, Mary, is a retired reading specialist with a lovely voice. Their two children, Noah and Ronen, are out in the world, having creative lives, and grandson, Benjamin, is laughing and growing out in California. Regarding his involvement in Songs of Protest 4 he says, "It's been an honor and a pleasure to participate in the Songs of Protest concerts through the years. Whether we're on stage or in the audience, this is our chance to share in the opportunity and the freedom to say what is on our minds. More important than ever RIGHT NOW!"

Rita Harvey

Rita Harvey is an actress and singer, who starred in the 2004 Broadway revival of Fiddler on the Roof (Hodel), and The Phantom of the Opera (Christine) on Broadway. She has also toured nationally with The Phantom of the Opera (Christine) and Neil Berg's 100 Years of Broadway. Rita has numerous Off-Broadway credits and is a frequent guest soloist with symphonies across the country. She created and performs in the tribute concert, Heart Like A Wheel: The Music of Linda Ronstadt. Her thoughts on Songs of Protest 4-- "I'm so honored to be a part of this important concert series, especially in the company of such brilliant, talented, amazing artists. Throughout history, artists have given voice to the generations of people going through social change and upheaval. It helps to process strong emotions and hopefully bring people together by fostering empathy and finding common ground. I'm proud to be a part of that effort. I'm especially proud to sing a song written by my talented husband, Neil Berg. It's an anthem that we can all keep in mind during this extremely rough time. I pray it brings you some peace and hope!"

Neil Berg

Neil Berg is an award-winning composer/co-lyricist of the new musical The 12, written with Pulitzer Prize/Tony-winning playwright, Robert Schenkkan. The 12 won The Henry Award for best new musical when it premiered at the Denver Center, and is now being produced for Broadway, to be directed by Tony Award winning director, John Doyle. Neil's other original musicals include Grumpy Old Men: The Musical, starring Sally Struthers & Hal Linden, Off-Broadway musical The Prince and the Pauper, Tim and Scrooge, winner of Broadwayworld.com's "Best Musical" Award, The Man Who Would Be King, Never Grimm, and an upcoming musical about Pete Rose called Charlie Hustle. Neil is also the creator/co-producer of the #1 Broadway touring concert in America, Neil Berg's 100 Years of Broadway, as well as Neil Berg's 50 Years of Rock & Roll and Neil Berg's Piano Men. Regarding Songs of Protest 4, Neil says, "I'm excited to be involved with this concert, and share a song I wrote, along with so many esteemed colleagues, including my brilliant wife, Rita Harvey. It is so important that we all continue to express ourselves. I keep hearing that we are a divided nation. Yes, we are, but we have always been a deeply divided nation, since our birth. But what has saved us is not our differences, but what we have in common. I'm not quite sure how much longer this rather young experiment called The United States of America will last, but I still want to believe there is more goodness, respect and commonality than not, and I hope we each choose to be part of the solution, than be part of the problem, before it's too late."

Branford Marsalis

Branford Marsalis has stayed the course. From his early acclaim as a saxophonist bringing new energy and new audiences to the jazz art, he has refined and expanded his talents and his horizons as a musician, composer, bandleader and educator – a 21st Century mainstay of artistic excellence. Some might gauge Branford Marsalis's success by his numerous awards, including three Grammys and (together with his father and brothers) his citation as a Jazz Master by the National Endowment for the Arts. To Branford, however, these are only way stations along what continues to be one of the most fascinating and rewarding journeys in the world of music. The range and quality of Branford's diverse activities established him as a familiar presence beyond the worlds of jazz and classical music, while his efforts to help heal and rebuild New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina mark him as an artist with an uncommonly effective social vision.

Suzanne Vega

Widely regarded as one of the foremost songwriters of her generation, Suzanne Vega released her latest album, An Evening of New York Songs and Stories, on September 11, 2020 (Amanuensis/Cooking Vinyl). Vega emerged as a leading figure of the folk-music revival of the early 1980s when, accompanying herself on acoustic guitar, she sang what has been called contemporary folk or neo-folk songs of her own creation in Greenwich Village clubs. Since the release of her self-titled, critically acclaimed 1985 debut album, she has given sold-out concerts in many of the world's best-known venues. Known for performances that convey deep emotion, Vega's distinctive, "clear, unwavering voice" (Rolling Stone) has been described as "a cool, dry sandpaper-brushed near-whisper" by The Washington Post, with NPR Music noting that she "has been making vital, inventive music" throughout the course of her decades-long career.

The Chapin Sisters

Making music that The New York Times praises as “tantalizingly close to beauty,” The Chapin Sisters carry on a proud family musical legacy: Father Tom Chapin is a Grammy-winning singer/songwriter, legendary late uncle Harry Chapin was a musical artist and activist best known for his 1974 #1 hit “Cat’s in the Cradle,” and grandfather Jim Chapin was an esteemed jazz drummer and author of seminal drum instructional books. Since 2005 the sisters have garnered critical acclaim by forging a distinctive musical imprint in which they “wed lilting voices, dynamically complex vocal harmonies, and folk-influenced melodies to dark, wryly sarcastic lyrical content,” according to an Amazon.com editorial review.

KEEP ON ROCKIN' ARTSROCK!
